

Students Guide to Successful Collaboration

- Everyone feels confident to make a comment about someone else's opinion
- Any disagreements are sorted out without leading to arguments and no-one interrupts
- Any new knowledge stays in the students head for longer meaning that more is learnt
- Everyone in the group is taking part and helping others
- Everyone feels comfortable enough to express an opinion
- The outcome of the lesson is always achieved